From Pastor Phill

Welcome to fall. This whole week the morning temperature is predicted to be under 70 degrees. Mind you, that doesn't last, the days end near 100, but I'm optimistic that some of my suffering plants might actually recover. That's a horticultural prayer – since I know nothing about horticulture I resort to prayer. Can't hurt.

This fall will see the installation of new signage on campus, intended to provide guests and visitors some assistance in navigating here. Heretofore we've taken for granted that folks can figure out where to drive and walk. Soon any guesswork will be eliminated.

That comes as a result of a group meeting as an Enhancement Committee, looking at ways in which we might enhance our physical plant for our members and guests. A larger project we will take on in late spring of 2024 is a redo of our 4 bathrooms, tile, paint, sinks, counters, etc. What exists has served us well for 30 years, so we'll get set for the next 30 years. Over time the church has established a substantial Dedicated Account, Repair and Replacement, from which will come the funds to accomplish this update. We're fortunate that your Christian stewardship allows us to maintain our facilities in the top-notch condition we all enjoy.

Other projects envisioned but not scheduled are new carpeting in the Sanctuary and Narthex, new paint colors throughout, landscaping both in the courtyard and the perimeter of the property, etc. Clearly, these larger projects can't be accomplished all at once; we're in the process of prioritizing the funding and time frame. Stay tuned.

If you were in church this last Sunday you will have noticed my mike began to broadcast hissing and scratching noises – the antenna had broken off the mike pack. The light bars that direct light onto the chancel area are in need of attention, which work needs to be done by outside sources. Currently, there is no staff responsible for the maintenance, improvement, and training of operators, computers, sound equipment, website, etc. – and it has become clear we need such a person. Church Council is considering a job description for such a person, and Finance Committee is looking at funding for an additional staff member. At our November Voters' Assembly you will likely hear a presentation as to how we accomplish that add. If the position and funding are approved we'll search for such a person.

To Crown of Life Members,

Thank you very much for your cards, thoughts, and prayers for the loss of my husband and son's father, Larry Brown. We very much appreciate all your concerns.

Monday – Thursday

7:30 - 3:30

Friday 7:30 - 1:00

The Lord has certainly been good to us in providing new staff here, as folks retire or new opportunities arise – consider Administrator Holly Gast, Office Assistant Cathy Meyer, Organist Bob Coursen, Choir Director Matt Dellar, Associate Pastor Mark Airey, listed in the order He sent them to us. Surely He will assist in bringing the right tech-oriented Christian to us!

The end of this new month brings our celebration of Reformation, this year at services on the 28 and 29 October. We've talked before about the contrast between our one-weekend recognition of Reformation, and the truth that our forebears labored decades and longer to achieve such a thing as a reformation of faith and practice. We are proudly Lutheran, Biblical Christians who look to scripture as the source and guide of the teaching in our church. We thank God that He has blessed us with His presence in our hearts, in our worship, and in our fellowship.

Happy October!
Pastor Phill

From Pastor Mark

"No unbelief made him (Abraham) waver concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong in his faith as he gave glory to God, fully convinced that God was able to do what he had promised. That is why his faith was 'counted to him as righteousness.'" (Romans 4:20-22)

These days, we have both too little and too much certainty.

On the one hand, it is hard to be certain in a world where no one can agree on anything. While at one time you could count on people to at least agree to a basic set of facts, now people have "alternative facts" from their preferred media sources to back wildly different pictures of reality. When even easily verifiable things are questioned—what is a woman, global warming or not, the winner of the last election—what hope do we have for the big cultural and political battles: issues of sex and gender, our history of racism, and how to deal with a pandemic? With so many competing narratives about every facet of our lives, it becomes hard to hold anything as true.

On the other hand, we have so much certainty in our own pet theories that we refuse to listen to anyone who might disagree. We become so invested in political and cultural identities that we are threatened by anyone who questions them, responding in anger to anyone audacious enough to hold a different view. This kind of certainty hardens us against each other, and it only makes the general confusion and rancor of our society worse. As a result, we segregate ourselves into smaller and smaller echo chambers, where everyone thinks the same and no one calls us to question our political idols.

And yet, for all its problems, certainty is indispensable in the life of a Christian. There has been a lot of confusion even on this essential point within the church. We have been discussing this in our Bible class, Reason for God. Some argue that faith is always uncertain, always a little doubtful, never fully knowing if what it believes is true. Others argue that faith is full and certain knowledge in every religious matter, an understanding of God and the world so complete that no serious questions remain.

Still others argue that faith is simply a matter of personal choice or preference that should be kept private: “you believe your way, I’ll believe mine.” But none of these descriptions capture the reality that is Christian faith.

As the above-quoted passage from Romans indicates, faith is a particular kind of certainty, “being fully convinced” by the promise of God to the extent that you would stake your life on it. It does not waver or doubt, but instead remains absolutely certain that God will accomplish what God has promised to do. It is not something privately confined to the “religious” part of your life, nor is it a self-assured certainty “puffed up” with perfect knowledge.

This faith is concrete and specific, resting not in general notions of God or goodness or beauty, but rather in the specific promises God has made to you. It is trusting the voice of your Heavenly Father in baptism: “You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased.” (Mark 1:11) It is trusting the promise of Jesus given in communion: “...this is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins.” (Matthew 26:28) And it is trusting the messengers of the Holy Spirit whose “beautiful feet” (Romans 10:15) bring them near to preach these promises into your ear.

But even though faith is absolute certainty, none of us have perfect faith in this life. All of us Christians are caught in the pull of our two identities; the old creature who does not believe God’s promise, and the new creature who trusts perfectly. For as long as we Christians continue in this life, the old creature in us will fight against faith, and the new creature in us will trust in God’s promise. While this internal struggle will be ours for life, it is not a struggle that can be overcome by our efforts, as though by turning our attention inward we could work up sufficient faith. Rather, the faith we need comes always from outside us, always being implanted within us by the word and work of God, leading us always to pray “I believe; help my unbelief!” (Mark 9:24)

Because faith is certain, you are set free from worry; your “peace with God” (Romans 5:1) has been delivered, and your good future is already secured. Because faith is specific, you don’t need to have all the answers; your certainty in “the one thing needed” (Luke 10:42) lets you hold everything else loosely. And because faith is a gift of God, you don’t have to prove it to anyone; with God as your justifier, there is no need to justify yourself.

When this faith takes hold of you, everything becomes different. Where once the world was a threat to be feared, now it is an awesome and mysterious gift to be enjoyed and be thankful for. Where once those who disagree with you were obstacles to be overcome, now they are persons made by God for you to love. Where once God was a distant judge weighing your value on the scales of justice, now God is your Creator, giving you everything you need for this life and the next. This faith gives freedom in a way nothing else can, turning us outward from our interior prisons towards the miraculous creation in which we live. It places us here and now, in Sun City West at Crown of Life Lutheran Church, in God’s peaceful kingdom, preserving us even through suffering and trials. It makes us busy and active, doing good simply because it needs doing. It bestows on us the confidence to live before God in the world, rooting us firmly in God’s grace, and giving us the certainty we need to thrive in this uncertain world.

Your Brother in Christ,
Pastor Mark

Crown of Life Annual Christmas Dinner – 2023

The planning has begun for the annual COL Christmas Dinner.

This is just a reminder that we will once again be offering the traditional Christmas Turkey or Ham dinners with all the fixings on Christmas Day. We will once again be offering these dinners as full sit-down meals in the Parish Hall or as take-out meals to go. More details will be in the November Jewels and bulletins. Sign-ups for the meals and for assisting with meal preparation and serving will also be in the Jewels and bulletins. Make plans now to join your friends and neighbors for a traditional Christmas Dinner!

NEED PRAYER?

A hearty welcome to our new members! Please know that Prayer is an intrinsic and joyful part of our Ministry at Crown of Life. God loves to hear from us when we rejoice, and when we hurt. When unexpected, distressing needs arise in our lives, please be aware that brothers and sisters here are ready to walk and talk alongside with you to our Heavenly Father, and that these prayers are sent to God's attention as soon as received.

Once the need for prayer is made known, help is available in several ways:

- During a family emergency, a call is made to the church office to let the Pastors know, and relief will be initiated by them directly.
- Concerns made known to us by family, friends, and neighbors, are submitted to our prayer website, prayer@colchurch.com, which brings attention of the concerns to all members who have signed up to add their support and make intercessions.
- Prayer needs noted on the cards in the pews for that purpose will be put into the hands of our Prayer Warriors on Monday morning, each one receiving individual prayer support. These cards may be put in the offering plate during service, or placed in the Prayer Box mounted in the narthex near the exit door closest to the Parish Hall.

If you need additional information or have any questions at all, please call Kathe Schmidt at 307-277-3447, or the church office at 623-546-6228.

The Council Corner

We have changed the heading of the article to reflect that this is an article from the total Council and not just the president. We will try to address aspects we feel are important to you, the members, thus keeping you updated.

The Church Council is back meeting regularly and if the September meeting is any indication, we will be very busy. If you recall several committees were created, here is an update on what is going on with each of them.

The Endowment Committee Members have been selected and approved by the Council and are beginning their work. You will be hearing more directly from the committee's chairperson at the November voters' meeting. It has taken some time from when the Endowment document was approved to today, but you can expect to hear and read more soon. This will have a major influence on the future of our congregation.

The Enhancement Committee did not take a break over the summer and continues to provide monthly updates to the Council. This group has been looking at ways that COL can address the physical appearance of our campus, address how this will affect current members, and look at how this can influence future membership. Pastor Mark is part of this committee and is providing insight as to how this can influence outreach.

The Long-Term Planning Committee meets on a regular basis to look at the future. The goal of this committee is to identify and provide vision to leadership on what we must address related to priorities and budget for the next three years. If you recall the task force committee provided information to the Council in 2020. Three years have passed since that report and the committee started by looking at that report to see what has changed. To our surprise many of the areas they, the task force, focused on have been addressed. Change can take place without planning but just happens because of things that occur around us. Examples are Covid, retirements, and leadership change. Information is and will be gathered from the special committees listed above and from staff and leadership.

In the November voters' meeting we will share statistics related to our Church growth over the last six years. If you have not put the date, November 12th, on your calendar, I would encourage you to do so.

To those of you who are back for the winter or will be returning very soon, welcome back and we look forward to seeing you.

God Bless

O GIVE THANKS
UNTO THE LORD.
FOR HE IS GOOD.

Quilters News

by Valerie VanNess

Welcome to our New church members and welcome back to our Winter members. (Please bring some cooler temperatures with you!)

The quilters would love to have you join us in making quilts for charities and also for our church quilt sale. You don't need to bring your sewing machine. If you can thread a needle, cut fabric, or use a sewing machine (we have several), we could use your expertise.

We meet in the Parish Hall at 9AM on the first and third Tuesday of each month. Bring your lunch if you want since we usually stay until 1PM. Hope to see you soon!

Our next Quilt Sale is on November 11-12. Quilts come in many sizes and colors. We also have other items like children's cloth books and knit (or crochet) caps.

If you know someone in a nursing facility who could use a quilt, please let Holly or Cathy in the church office know so we can give them one.

Hope to see you at the sale and in our quilting group.

The Sunday Flower Committee needs more help! If you are interested and willing to help, please contact Florella at 623-670-4320.

Surviving the Holidays: When Grieving the Loss of a Loved One

Christine Escobar, GriefCare Coordinator

This is the time of year when many people start planning events for the holiday season. If you are grieving the death of a spouse, family member, or friend, you may dread this holiday season. Thoughts of social gatherings, family traditions, and obligations may leave you feeling anxious and overwhelmed. You may wish you could skip this holiday season and go straight to the routine of the following year—but you can't. What can you do to lessen your stress and loneliness?

It is normal to feel overwhelmed as the holiday season approaches. You may wonder how you will handle it and not know what course to take. You can start by learning what emotions are normal and expected when facing the holidays without your loved one. Know that you can get through these holidays and may even find moments of joy.

As holiday events trigger unexpected emotions, you won't be rendered helpless and overwhelmed when you know what to expect. So, where can you find out what emotions to expect over the holidays, how to create a healthy plan, and how to communicate with family and friends these coming weeks?

Attend our "Surviving the Holidays" seminar on November 7, 2023

We will hear practical, actionable strategies for making it through the holiday season. We will host our GriefShare "Surviving the Holidays" event on Tuesday, November 7, 2023, at Crown of Life Lutheran Church from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. At this two-hour seminar, you will view a video featuring advice from grieving people who have faced the holidays after their loss. You will hear insights from respected Christian counselors, pastors, and psychologists. You will also receive a Holiday Survival Guide with practical strategies, encouraging words, helpful exercises, and journaling ideas for daily survival through the holiday season.

At our GriefShare "Surviving the Holidays" seminar, you will meet with other grieving people who understand what you're going through. They won't judge you or force you to share. They will accept you where you are and offer comfort and support.

Your holiday season won't be easy. Your emotions may ambush you and suck you under at times. But you can walk through this season in a way that honors God and your loved one and keeps you on the path of health and healing.

For more information about our "Surviving the Holidays" seminar, call Christine Escobar at 623.218.6793 or email griefcare@col.com. We have also placed a sign-up sheet at the information desk.

SHARE A MEAL MINISTRY

By Marilyn Goodnight

Serving God by caring for others during difficult times in their lives is truly a blessing for me. Preparing a meal and praying over it while it is cooking brings me such joy. Crown of Life members pictured here have volunteered to serve in this ministry out of love in their hearts. Some of them are snowbirds, so we greatly need others to join us in preparing "Love Meals" as I call them. If you are so moved to volunteer there is a sign-up sheet on the Information Desk. For more information please contact Marilyn Goodnight at 925-548-2324.

"Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer. Share with the Lord's people who are in need. Practice hospitality."

Petal Pushers 2024

Building off of the 2024 Pasadena Tournament of Roses Parade Theme, Celebrating a World of Music, the Lutheran Hour Ministries Float Committee is proud to present our float entitled Make a Joyful Noise unto the LORD. Psalm 98 calls forth a new song from the entirety of creation: a universal song of victory proclaimed with voices, lyre, trumpets and horns. This is the song of God's victory which He has achieved through the death and resurrection of HIS Son, the Messiah, Jesus Christ of Nazareth. Through the death and resurrection of Jesus, God brings hope of life eternal to HIS people.

For this reason, the people of God sing a new song. It is a song of hope, a song of joy, a song of praise. No longer does death have any power over us; death has lost its sting. What this means is that we do not become lost in grief. Instead, we grieve with hope because everyone who believes in HIM shall never die. (John 11:25b-26).

Women in Mission

By Darlene Markle

On July 7th & 8th 1942 at St. Stephens Lutheran Church, Chicago, IL. the Lutheran Women's Missionary League came into being. Fast forward 81 years and you see the LWML is still going strong serving the Lord with gladness.

Two women who come to mind are Dorcas, who was full of good works and acts of charity, and Phebe who carried Paul's epistles. He called her "our sister" and a servant of the church which is at Cenchrea.

Are you looking for a way to serve others? What spiritual gifts has God given you to use in the church? There are many ministries to choose from right here! Check out this list that was given to me. There's something for everyone.

Do what you love to the glory of God!
