From Pastor Phill

No! No resolutions! I wouldn't keep them up anyway, so why? Unless... let's go at it this way: I resolve to eat more stuff not good for me, spend more than I should, drive way too fast, etc. That way if I don't keep those resolutions, it's a good thing. The lesson: be careful what you resolve to do.

And welcome to a brand New Year, one that, if anything, will fly by even faster than the previous ones. Epiphany is a week away; this year with an early Easter, February 14 is Ash Wednesday, into Lent we go so quickly, and by the end of March Eastertide has come and gone. See what I mean? The year is already flying and you just got this today!

In December we held a special Voters' Assembly at which we determined to call Zachary Mulso to our new position Director of Technology Ministries. I did speak to him that afternoon to let him know, and to ask him to begin considering the Call. The process is not a speedy one; Call docs go to Pacific Southwest District President for signature before moving on to Zach through Concordia University/Mequon's Director of Placement. All that says it will be some weeks before we know whether Zach accepts the Call or returns it.

Now, that new staff position does not mean we need fewer volunteers in the sound booth. There are 3 spots up there that need to be filled by our members, sound board, PowerPoint operator, streaming operator – none of them difficult, all of them easily trained. If you're looking for a way to serve the church on a scheduled but occasional basis, we need you.

In fact, we need you in other places as well: greeters and ushers, easy and enjoyable. Or how about the Bell Choir? We have many more bells than we do ringers – there is a place for you there. Can you sing? Join the Choir. There's room for you in the choir loft as well. So many places to serve – what's on your heart?

The United Methodist Church has in recent years moved away from its once conservative stances on so many issues impacting this world. As a result nearly 2,500 parishes of that denomination have sought "disaffiliation," that is, leaving the denomination. The Episcopal church in this country has experienced the same thing, giving rise to the Anglican church in America. As the media drives public opinion, and the law of the land changes before our eyes, churches come under pressure to abandon Biblical principles in favor of the new morality.

Installation of Officers

On Sunday, January 7, the elected and appointed officers of our boards, committees, and organizations will all be recognized and installed into service for the year 2024. The Installation will take place at the Sunday service and will include officers and leaders of our boards and Church Council, our auxiliary organizations, and committees.

Lutheran Church – Missouri Synod remains its stodgy old self, for which I thank my Lord and my God. Just yesterday, the Pope announced Catholic churches may now “bless” same sex marriage, whatever that means. Those folks seeking that blessing are children of God, deserving of love of neighbor like anyone else, and yet we here stand ready to not only “bless” but marry a man and a woman as God created us, and not to compromise our – the Bible’s – standards on these societal hot button issues.

On that serious note I pray each of us, and our church, have a healthy and prosperous New Year. Who knows what adventures God has in store for us?

Pastor Phill

From Pastor Mark

Happy New Year Brothers and Sisters in Christ!

As we stand on the brink of a new year, let's embrace the opportunity for spiritual growth and deepened connection with our faith. Starting January 1st, we invite each and every one of you to join us on a transformative journey of reading through the entire Bible.

This year, we will be using the “Bible Project” application, which is a powerful tool designed to enhance your reading experience. Or you can just read along using the handout available with the schedule that we will be following. The application will have insightful videos accompanying each book of the Bible and other videos dealing with the themes that arise in that part of the Bible. This app will not only guide you through the Scriptures but also provide valuable context and understanding. If you are reading on your own, you can sign up on the email list at the Information Desk and we will send you the links to the video for each book. The app will also remind you of your reading each day with notifications.

Why embark on this journey? Reading the Bible cover to cover allows us to grasp the grand narrative of God's love, grace, and redemption. It's an opportunity to strengthen our spiritual foundation, deepen our relationship with God, and foster a sense of community as we embark on this collective endeavor.

Let's encourage one another on this journey! Share your thoughts, reflections, and favorite passages with each other. We'll also be augmenting the reading we will be doing as a church at Barbie's Tuesday afternoon Bible Study (2:00pm) and my Wednesday Bible Study (9:30am) to discuss the scriptures we are reading at that time, any questions you might have, and we can share the wisdom we gain along the way.

As we read together, may the words of Scripture inspire us, challenge us, and draw us closer to the heart of God. You are also encouraged to let your friends, neighbors, and golf buddies know that they can join us in this amazing journey. Let everyone in the community know that Crown of Life Lutheran Church is a congregation that is all about the Word of God! Let's make 2024 a year of spiritual renewal and growth as we dive into the richness of God's Word.

Blessings,
Pastor Mark

Men's Friday Bible Study: Suffering and Righteousness

Men of Crown of Life are invited to come on the first, third, and fifth Fridays of the month for conversation, coffee, donuts, and Bible study.

On Friday, January 5 at 9:00 a.m., Pastor Mirly will begin a new topic on "SUFFERING AND RIGHTEOUSNESS." This study will be based upon a quick survey of the Book of Job followed by finding Biblical answers to why does God permit you to have trials, tribulations, and difficulties in your life. A sample of the questions that will be discussed are: 1) Where is God in your time of pain and suffering? 2) Why does God permit tragedy(s) to happen? 3) What are important questions to ask and answers He gives when facing adversity/life's challenges?

Each session is from 9:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. All men of the congregation are invited and encouraged to attend. Pastor Mirly also encourages you to invite a neighbor, golfing partner and/or friend to come with you. There will be two sessions in January on the 5th and 19th of the month.

MISSIONS Thank You

Dear Crown of Life!

Merry Xmas and Blessed Advent! As this year reaches a close, I am once again brought to Christian thanks for all the Christian brothers and sisters who lift my work up in prayers and offering. Thank you so much for all your sacrificial generosity and may God richly bless us all in the name of his Son Jesus Christ.

In the name of Jesus,
Rev. Tyler McMiller
Church Planter/Theological Educator in Italy through LCMS

To our brothers and sisters in Sun City West -

Advent greetings, advance wishes for a blessed Christmas and a joyous New Year, and thanks for your continued support and partnership in prayer and giving. As the year draws to a close and we reflect on what has occurred and how the Lord has worked in our lives, I pray you take great joy in how He continues to use your congregation to support the work of the Gospel in Arizona and around the world!

We look forward to worshipping with you again in person sometime late this coming spring, and we'll keep you informed as dates begin to take shape. Until then, may God the Holy Spirit guard and keep us all until our Lord's glorious return!

In Christ,
Rev. Paul A. Nelson

We are working Together

By Jay Brinkmeyer

"I thank my God every time I remember you. In all my prayers for all of you, I always pray with joy because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now, being confident of this, that He who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus."
Philippians 1:3-6

I live alone here in Normal, IL and occasionally, perhaps once a month, I eat out and the host will ask me, "Is there just one of you?" I am just one Trinity HOPE donor, but I can tell you that there are many more like me who care about feeding Haitian school children out there. Together, "we" are the church and together "we" accomplish HIS work through HIS directions. WE provide meals for a really, large group of Haitian children and their schoolteachers. I totally agree with what St. Paul wrote, "I thank my God every time I remember you" because I have seen many of those children that WE are feeding. WE are strong in numbers. WE are united while doing God's work...feeding HIS children...HIS missionaries to Haiti.

Your donation is so very important. Your Bible study group, school, congregation, and family are very important to His work feeding Haitian school children. Please ask the Holy Spirit to bring another person to your table and be prepared to hear the words; "is this seat taken?" Let us work together.

May God be with you,
Jay

My Refuge and My Fortress

Christine Escobar, GriefCare Coordinator

The loss of a loved one shatters our world. Nothing seems the same. We feel vulnerable and defenseless. How do we go on? The pain wells up and comes upon us like waves of the ocean. We wonder if we will ever feel joy again. Our strength and our resilience come from our Lord. We can trust the Lord to shelter us through this treacherous time.

A helpful practice when we feel adrift amid the turmoil of our emotions is to select a favorite scripture verse that calms our soul. Read the verse aloud at least three times. I recently chose Psalm 91 and read it aloud three times. I was amazed at the sense of calm and reassurance I felt after I completed this practice. I have made this practice part of my morning routine.

Psalm 91: My Refuge and My Fortress

He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High will abide in the shadow of the Almighty.

<sup>2</sup> I will say to the LORD, "My refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust."

<sup>3</sup> For he will deliver you from the snare of the fowler and from the deadly pestilence.

*<sup>4</sup> He will cover you with his pinions,
and under his wings you will find refuge;
his faithfulness is a shield and buckler.*

*<sup>5</sup> You will not fear the terror of the night,
nor the arrow that flies by day,*

*<sup>6</sup> nor the pestilence that stalks in darkness,
nor the destruction that wastes at noonday.*

<sup>9</sup> Because you have made the LORD your dwelling place—

*the Most High, who is my refuge—<sup>10</sup> no evil shall be allowed to befall you,
no plague come near your tent.*

<sup>11</sup> For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways.

....

<sup>14</sup> "Because he holds fast to me in love, I will deliver him;

I will protect him, because he knows my name.

*<sup>15</sup> When he calls to me, I will answer him;
I will be with him in trouble;*

I will rescue him and honor him.

*<sup>16</sup> With long life I will satisfy him
and show him my salvation.*

Replenishing our souls with God's Word is essential to staying encouraged and motivated to move forward in our walk with God amid grief, pain, and difficulties. Our GriefCare support groups provide such an opportunity. We offer Christian fellowship, comfort, and encouragement as we draw close to God to get through the challenging and painful time of grieving the loss of a loved one.

We will meet in the Chapel on Wednesdays from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. Please call Christine at 623-218-6793 or email griefcare@colchurch.com for more information and to register. ### Women in Mission

By Darlene Markle

What are your plans for the new year? Have you ever wondered what God is planning for you this year? They could be similar. We know He knows what's next for you. God certainly wants you to be a blessing in your family, church, neighborhood and to your friends. You are worth everything to Him!

Matthew 6:26 says "Look at the birds of the air: they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not more value than they?"

Start fresh. Don't go into the new year with last year's burdens. Instead, pray. 1 Thessalonians 5:17 says, "pray without ceasing." Ask Him to help you change if you want more of Him in your life. It takes courage to change but the list of promises He has for you is worth it. Pray also He uses LWML as an example of being in the Word. There are many Bible studies offered throughout the week. Choose one that fits your schedule. There have been dozens of new members this past year. Let's embrace the new ladies and invite them to one of the many opportunities offered. There are lists on the Information Desk in which to choose from!

Speaking of something new, did you see the inscriptions on the two crosses on the altar? I did just last week and love telling others to look. All women are invited on Tuesday, January 9th at 1pm in the chapel to hear our next speaker, Christine Escobar. Happy New Year!
