From Pastor Phill

Πασχα is Greek to me, how about you? Say it “paskah.” The word is translated into English as Passover. The King James uses the word Passover in the New Testament every time the Greek “paskah” occurs except once, Acts 12:4 – Peter is arrested by Herod, jailed, with the intention to bring him out after Easter and present him as a sacrifice to the Jews. The folks that put the King James together wanted to attach this happening to Easter, which makes sense, in Acts. So when you hear/read the word “pascal” to describe Easter, you know its origin, which initially was used only in reference to the miracle of the Passover (Exodus 12).

The Old Testament Hebrew uses a variant of the word paskah 49 times – it was a vitally important moment and concept for them, so they had to invent a word to describe it. Fun stuff, yes? So then that Greek word “paskah” is a transliteration. That is, the sound and the meaning of the original Aramaic-then-Hebrew word was borrowed and moved into Greek, as that language had no word for the event.

So from all that, where do we get the word Easter? Bede the Venerable (that wild and crazy 7th century monk who lived in England) wrote down what seems plausible at least to me, but then I'm a Bede fan. He says that early Christians borrowed the name of a goddess of spring, Eostre (that's in the Northumbrian language, where Bede lived), a false god that tracks back even further. So the spring equinox rolled around, planting time, a sun event noted by many pre-historic people (think Stonehenge, think the Casa Grande monument north of Tucson, think the Mayans, etc). Hey, it's the equinox, let's have a feast, name the goddess Eostre, and get on with the party.

The Lord, in His wisdom, caused the Passover to coincide with planting time, the spring equinox, etc, and then caused His one and only Son to be sacrificed for us at that same time. Convenient holy planning, as every culture everywhere recognized that time as significant in their lives, and God allowed Christians to fit right in with those pre-existent celebrations, as He eclipsed them all with a salvation meant for everyone. So we have a spring party in the church, a party celebrating God's plan for us, His grace toward us, His love and forgiveness on display for all the world to see in the resurrection of the Paschal Lamb. We call it Easter.

This is an early Easter. The earliest ever was March 20, 1818 – it won't happen that early for another 250 years, so don't wait for that...

Pastor Phill

From Pastor Mark

Sometimes something old can be the source of something new.

The stresses and tensions that we have been through lately have left many people struggling to cope. It feels like just as we find our way through one storm, another strikes from a different direction.

In such times as this, the inclination may be to look for a new strategy, a new way forward and out. Then again, sometimes something old can be the source of something new.

Lent is that something old that can lead to something new. When you participate in something that has been around for thousands of years, it anchors you. It reminds you that your current circumstance has a context. It says to you that there is always a next chapter. As we are entering the Easter Season and are observing Lent, I hope you have benefitted from the sermon series we have going on here at Crown of Life.

This year's series strives to address popular assumptions of postmodernism. Postmodernism is an elastic term, not easily defined, but it meets us almost daily in life and in ministry. Its subtle influences are found in all age groups, not just young people. No longer is there one morality or myth or ritual or dance or dream or philosophy or concept of self or God or culture or style of art that predominates. The explosion of new communications technologies and the continuing fragmentation of cultures into thousands of little cultures has forced us to view our world as simultaneously expanding and shrinking. This is what "Life Together" in a postmodern world is all about. To understand and find a foothold in a topsy-turvy world around us can help us to be able to help others in our life.

I encourage you to connect with the Season of Lent this year. I hope you will appreciate its history and take the initiative to make this time of spiritual renewal your own. It needn't be the solemn time that it traditionally has been, but it should be a time of re-centering yourself in your faith...even in a postmodern world.

Lent has an important place in the chaos of our lives and our world. It is an invitation to slow down long enough to remember that God is with us even through the craziest of times—even in the "crucifixion" times in our lives—with the promise of healing and new life. If you are able, I would invite you to please join us for worship as we hear the witness of these people in John's Gospel.

Then let us all come together in a great Easter celebration! We have much to be thankful for! We are growing as a church, we are financially blessed, many of us are growing closer to God through reading through the Bible, we have each other, and we have a loving Lord that is in control of all that is going on. So, let us trust in Him as we look to the future see what "something new" He has in store for us!

Blessings, Pastor Mark

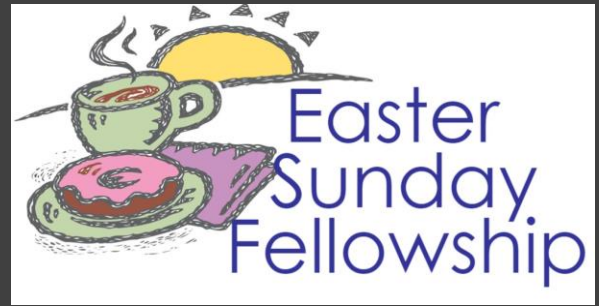

The Board for Missions Thanks You

Diane Hammann, Mission Board

Mission Weekend, February 17-18, was a success because of members of Crown of Life. Your generous donations to our church have enabled your Board for Missions to lend financial assistance around the world.

Those who stopped by the Mission information table commented on the impact they felt seeing the placards of 22 of the locations who received donations in 2023. They were amazed when viewing the world map just how far COL dollars travel to assist others.

If you were touched by what God can do with what He has given to us, please consider joining the Missions Board. We meet the 2nd Friday of each month from 9:00 to 10:00am. Just an hour a month to discuss needy and sometimes struggling LCMS-recognized missions/missionaries/ministry students, all striving to spread the Word.

Please join us in the Parish Hall on Easter morning—

- after the 6 AM Sunrise service for coffee and pastries, or
- between 8 AM and 11 AM for brunch. That's before, during, and after the 9 AM service, and before the 10:30 AM service begins, but not after the 10:30 service ends.

Choose from several egg dishes, hash brown potatoes, mini-sandwiches, fruit, pastries, and beverages.

Everyone is welcome!

Free-will offerings will be accepted.

Email Prayer Group

By Lisa Safago

Did you know we have a group of members who pray for others when they receive an email prayer request from church? In this group, you will get an email from the church asking you to pray for someone in need.

Here's how it works... When someone submits a prayer request to church, it is forwarded to a group of faithful congregation members who send up petitions to our Lord. This group does not meet in person, they are simply asked to pray on their own for those in need, whenever and wherever.

Would you like to receive emails and pray for others? It's easy to be a part of this email prayer group... Just send an email with your name to prayer@colchurch.com and request to be added. We currently have 86 members praying. We can never have too many! Your identity and email address will not be shared with anyone.

Please send questions about this email prayer ministry to Lisa Safago at safago.lisa@gmail.com

Please send your request to be added to the email prayer group to prayer@colchurch.com

Women in Mission

By Darlene Markle

Spring is almost here. Time to shake off the dust and begin spring cleaning! Warmer weather also invites us to go for a walk, hike or even a bike ride.

I have had this poem for many years and think it's quite appropriate for this issue. It's titled, "The Road of Life" by author unknown.

*At first, I saw God as my observer, my judge,
Keeping track of the things I did wrong, so as to know whether I merited heaven or hell when I die.
He was out there sort of like a president.
I recognized His picture when I saw it,
but I really didn't know Him.*

*But later on, when I met Christ,
it seemed as though life was rather like a bike ride,
but it was tandem bike, and I noticed that Christ was in the back helping me pedal.*

I don't know just when it was that He suggested we change places, but life has not been the same since.

*When I had control, I knew the way.
It was rather boring, but predictable...
it was the shortest distance between two points.*

*But when He took the lead, He knew delightful long cuts, up mountains, and through rocky places
at breakneck speeds, it was all I could do to hang on!
Even though it looked like madness, He said, "Pedal!"*

*I worried and was anxious and asked, "Where are you taking me?"
He laughed and didn't answer, and I started to learn to trust.*

*I forgot my boring life and entered into the adventure.
And when I'd say, "I'm scared,"
He'd lean back and touch my hand.*

*He took me to people with gifts that I needed,
gifts of healing, acceptance, and joy.
They gave me gifts to take on my journey,
my Lord's and mine.*

*And we were off again. He said, "Give the gifts away;
They are extra baggage, too much weight."
So I did, to the people we met, and I found that in giving I received, and still our burden was light.*

*I did not trust Him at first, in control of my life.
I thought He'd wreck it; but He knows bike secrets,
knows how to make it bend and take sharp corners,
knows how to fly to shorten scary passages.*

And I am learning to shut up and pedal in the strangest places, and I'm beginning to enjoy the view, and the cool breeze on my face with my delightful constant companion, Jesus Christ.

*And when I'm sure I just can't do anymore,
He just smiles and says....."Pedal."*

Being a part of LWML gives each of us many opportune times to serve. This March we will be having elections for two positions: Secretary and Treasurer. These positions are easiest for those who have had the experiences in their lifetime like typing and taking minutes as well as keeping good records with finances. There's a place for you to use your gifts to help keep LWML serving the Lord responsibly. You would serve 8 months of the year and we will train and guide you! Please pray with us that the Lord will raise up two servants!

During the weekends of March 23rd and April 6th, LWML will be supporting Garuna Ministries. You can also be a part by supporting with a monetary in-gathering to purchase large Christian books for their schools in Cambodia. The books that will be purchased are approximately $16.00 each. We are praying that we can raise enough to purchase a set of 24. There will be an informational overview of this ministry on the screens before the service. It's a joy to bring the Good News of Jesus to their 1,800 students and to work with Cheryl and Pastor Jeff Ehlers. There will be a table in the narthex with more information on it and a decorative box to give your gift for a book. Please pray for this ministry.

The LWML Pacific Southwest District Convention will be held in Rosemead, California the second weekend in June. A few women are already planning on attending and there's room for two more. LWML can help defray some of your costs and you don't have to worry about transportation. We are planning on leaving the 6th of June and returning on the 9th. Please see me for further details.

Save these dates: Tuesday, March 12th-LWML meeting and assembling Easter bags for the residents of Brookdale Camino del Sol at 1pm in the chapel and Tuesday, April 9th-LWML Annual Tea 1pm in the Parish Hall.

Set Apart to Serve as the Body of Christ in this World

Christine Escobar, Care Ministry Coordinator

God created us for community, and Christ has called us together in his church to represent him in this world. Christ commanded, love the Lord Your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength. The second is this: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other commandment greater than these (Mark 12:29-31).

God created us to care about each other. He also knows what brings us joy. The opportunity to serve our church family in practical ways that express our love and concern for each other brings us joy and purpose as we serve the Lord and build deeper friendships with our church family.

The Lord Will Guide Us When We Are in the Wilderness

Christine Escobar, GriefCare Coordinator

This March, we observe Lent (March 1-28), Good Friday (March 29), and Easter Sunday (March 31). We can draw a parallel between Christ's testing in the wilderness and his passion on the cross and our testing during our journey through raw grief. If we trust God to sustain us and guide us during our bewildering journey through grief, we will also find new meaning, joy, and purpose as we emerge from our grief stronger, more resilient, and more loving. If we persevere in faith and prayer, we will find that our relationship with the Lord becomes more vital and profound than ever. If we keep our focus on the One who is guiding us, joy will return.

As we reflect on the intense pain and suffering Christ willingly took upon himself for our salvation, we can sense Jesus walking by our side, loving us, comforting us, and strengthening us on our painful journey of healing from the death of a loved one. We know with certainty, The Lord is near the brokenhearted and saves the crushed in spirit. (Psalm 34:18)

If you are grieving the loss of your spouse, please join us on Tuesday, March 19, from 9:30 am to 11:30 am, for our "Loss of a Spouse Seminar." At this encouraging seminar, you will gain insight into the following:

- How to handle overwhelming emotions.
- How to grieve in a way that's healthy and suited to you
- Where to find the strength to go on.
- Biblical principles that help you deal with your grief.
- What to expect in the days to come.

Our 13-week GriefCare program, "Your Journey from Mourning to Joy," will start on Wednesday, April 3, 2024. This program will provide ongoing support to those grieving the loss of a loved one. Each week, we will cover a different aspect of grief experts deem essential to address to heal and move forward fully. There is no requirement to share. Those who do not wish to share can benefit greatly from listening to others in the group.

You will receive workbooks in the Loss of a Spouse Seminar and our 13-week session to help you put your life into perspective and determine priorities as you work through this challenging, overwhelming, and often disorienting time.

To register for these sessions, please call Christine Escobar at 623.218.6793 or email griefcare@colchurch.com.

Meet Zach Mulso

Hey! I'm Zach Mulso, I am from the cold state of Minnesota, and I recently graduated from Concordia University Wisconsin from their Director of Church Ministries program. I majored in Theology and minored in Church Ministries (Practical Theology) and Non-Profit Management.

My family is very church work oriented, my dad is a pastor at Emanuel Lutheran Church in Inver Grove Heights, Minnesota and my mom is a preschool director at Woodbury Lutheran. I have one brother, Cameron, who is 12. I am super blessed to become a part of this ministry at COL. All of the thoughts and prayers were greatly appreciated, and I continue to pray for this church, and all who come in contact with it.

I got my passion for technology from my dad who worked in IT before he became a pastor. I would help out with the Minnesota South Early Childhood Conference for several years being AV support, and that would then turn into me being more involved with technology in many other aspects.

At Concordia, I was a part of their Haven Ministry which is a prayer and praise time on Sunday night, but I was in charge of their tech team, which allowed me to grow and help expand that ministry. I also worked at my former home church, Emanuel Lutheran, for three years working on various tasks such as updating the church website, making the switch over to Planning Center, and most recently upgrading the church's sound system. I wanted to learn about how to do technology in the church before it became prevalent in 2020 and churches everywhere started to stream their services. I knew that the church could utilize technology to spread the gospel, but I wanted to get the theology behind it too. I thank God that he led me down that path and to Concordia where I got the experience and knowledge to go out into His world and spread the gospel to everyone.

Some fun facts about me are

- I am a foodie, I love to cook, and I love to venture out and try foods.
- I am a sports guy, mainly basketball, but watch football and some baseball. (Yes, I am a Vikings fan, we all have struggles!)
- My baptismal birthday is ALSO Saint Patrick's Day.
- My confirmation verse is Galatians 2:19-21.
- My favorite Bible story is either Faith Like a Mustard Seed parable or "Faith Like a Child."
